Project Pitch

Group 1-11

Title: LVMed - Medical Appointments App

Description: With the LVMed App we want users to be able to register their medical appointments safely and easily, while keeping track of them. Users can register with a specific doctor according to their need and book an available place, while also being able to access their health records.